

Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Award
Open Paper Competition for Young Professionals

The National Association for Kinesiology in Higher Education (NAKHE) invites faculty members in their first 5 years of employment at an institution of higher education, to participate in a special program at the 2015 conference in Clearwater, Florida on January 8-10, 2015. The 2015 NAKHE conference marks the 15th year in which the Executive Board of NAKHE has approved an Open Paper Competition to encourage the development of innovative ideas and discussions from our newest members of the profession.

The winner of the Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Open Paper Competition will have the opportunity to present the paper at a special session at the 2015 conference. In addition to this unique presentation opportunity, the Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar receives a monetary prize and is given a free membership in NAKHE for the upcoming year. The 2015 Homan's Lecturer will serve as the respondent to the 2015 Poindexter Young Scholar.

Submission Guidelines:

Send two electronic copies of the paper, (author information on only one of the copies) to:

Call for Papers

A call for papers is made each spring by the National Association for Kinesiology in Higher Education. The NAKHE Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Award provides an opportunity for the newest members of the higher education profession to present professional papers focusing specifically on interdisciplinary issues facing kinesiology, physical education or general higher education environments.

Topics: Original, unpublished research reports, position papers, philosophical statements, or a summary of the present state of an issue may serve as the basis for scholarly papers.

Selection Criteria:

1. Candidates must be full-time faculty members in their first five years of employment at a college or university setting.
2. Submissions may not have been previously published or presented.
3. Selection of papers is made on the basis of scholarly content, organization, and pertinence to Kinesiology, Physical Education or Higher Education from an interdisciplinary perspective. The body of the paper may not exceed fifteen (15) typed pages, doubled spaced.

Selection of the winning paper:

The winner will be selected by a blind review process using the following criteria: (a) a strong connection to the review of current literature in the field, (b) writing style, (c) originality of idea/concept/style of presentation, (d) practical application potential, and (e) the potential contribution to the field.

Awards:

1. The author who receives the NAKHE Hally Beth Poindexter Young Scholar Award is invited to present his/her paper at the 2015 NAKHE conference.
2. A $250.00 award will be presented to the selected author.
